Re: Docket # 04-233 - KNTV/NBC11 in San Jose, California

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to inform you of the extensive support that KNTV, the NBC affiliate in San Jose, California, has provided to our organization, EMQ Children & Family Services.

Our agency is a private 501(c)3 located in San Jose, California, and is nationally recognized for its innovative work with children in crisis. What started as a small San Jose-based orphanage 140 years ago has grown to serve more than 7,000 children and their family members around California today. More information can be found on our website: www.emq.org.

As KNTV has grown from a small, local station to an NBC property, our staff has worked with the reporters to ensure local news coverage of issues vital to the community such as the passage of local and state legislation for foster care children. KNTV have also used our clinicians as a resource for background information and interviews on issues such as teen suicide. Our working relationship has been one of mutual respect and partnership to the betterment of the community.

KNTV staff currently serves on our Board of Directors, and have been an active sponsor of our events to raise money for vital programs in local schools. The station staff has also produced media presentations on their own time to educate the community about teen addiction to prescription medication and alcohol, and dangerous behaviors such as cutting. They've also produced and aired PSAs announcing our annual fundraising benefit for the same.

It is clear from my work with staff at all levels that the support KNTV demonstrates for the local community begins in the General Manager's office and continues throughout the organization. We are very fortunate to have them in San Jose.

Sincerely,

Kristine Austin
Communications Director
